

U.S. Healthcare System

The U.S. healthcare system is complex, without a single administrative center and no government-provided universal healthcare. Healthcare systems provide four general categories of care:

Promote Health

Prevent Illness and Injury

Diagnose and Treat Illness and Injury

Restore Function After Illness or Injury Through Rehabilitation

